

Frank L. Valletta
Managing Partner

Mr. Valletta founded Valletta Ritson & Company in 1989 with Stephen Ritson to fulfill a niche for high-end, high service retained executive search in Upstate New York. The business has grown from that original regional focus to a nationwide practice serving a highly diversified client base.

Mr. Valletta has conducted a broad range of C-Level, BOD and mission critical individual contributor engagements. His Practice focuses on high technology with specialized sector expertise in fiber optic connectors; advanced electronic interconnect solutions and process control capital equipment for the semiconductor; nanoelectronic, and solar industries.

Frank is often called upon by companies to provide counsel and support for succession management initiatives focused on building and promoting a culturally diverse next generation of leadership.

Prior to entering the Executive Search field, Mr. Valletta held key positions in Human Resources, specializing in Talent Acquisition Management with the Eastman Kodak Company, Eaton Corporation and Harris Corporation.

Mr. Valletta is active in his local community, founding the Seton High School Girls Lacrosse Program. He also serves on several Boards of Directors including:

- Modern Marketing Concepts
- The Southern Tier Opportunity Coalition (STOC)
- Binghamton Philharmonic Orchestra

Frank graduated from The Ohio State University's Fisher College of Business with a Masters of Human Resources Management. He earned his undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Ithaca College.
